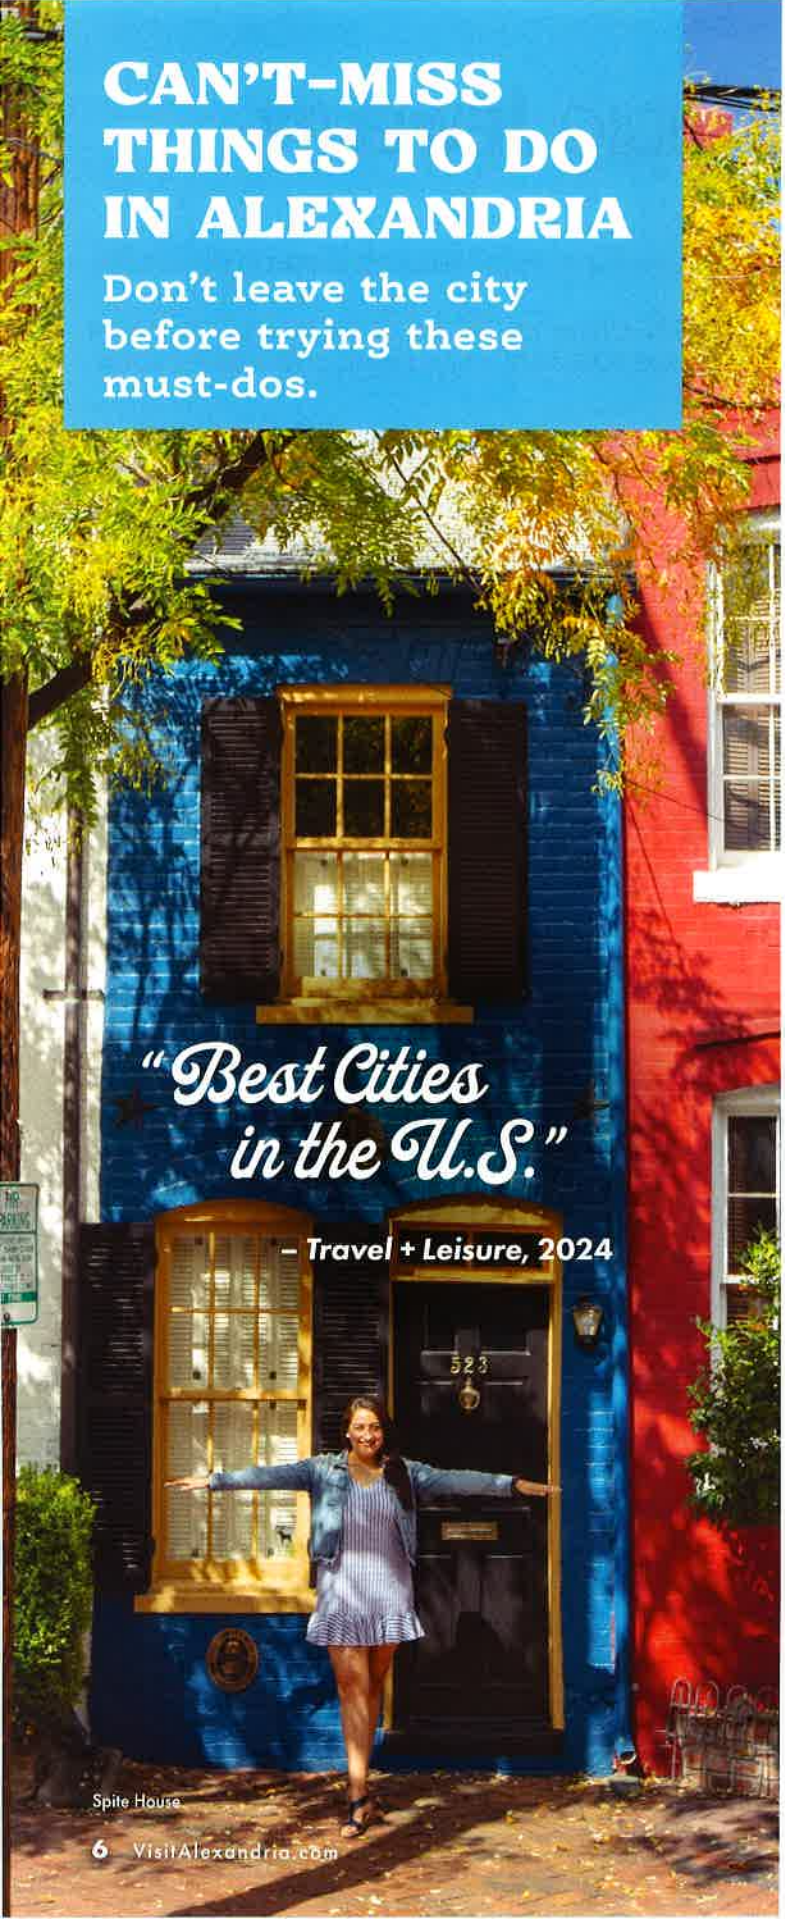
CAN'T-MISS THINGS TO DO IN ALEXANDRIA

Don't leave the city before trying these must-dos.



Spite House

1. Stroll the King Street Mile

Wander the King Street mile, studded with more than 200 independent restaurants and boutiques set in historic buildings. Enjoy some shopping and dining at places like Pacers Running, American in Paris Boutique, Don Taco or Bollywood Masala as you make your way down to the pedestrian zone to browse The Lucky Knot and enjoy a treat from Pop's Old Fashioned Ice Cream.

2. Soak up the Waterfront

Experience life aboard an 18th-century sloop with a tall ship *Providence dockside tour, or get out on the water via City Cruises – Alexandria. Admire Waterfront Park's temporary public art installation, then settle in for a riverside aperitif at BARCA Pier & Wine Bar.

3. Dive into Architecture

Wander historic streets and find more than 200 structures built before 1820. Visit the seven-foot-wide Spite House, America's skinniest historic home, or Carlyle House, Alexandria's only stone 18th-century mansion in a Georgian Palladian style. National Historic Landmarks abound, from Gadsby's Tavern to Christ Church. Discover a range of design styles, from Victorian to Art Deco and beyond.

4. Experience History Where It Happened

America's history is embedded in Alexandria's centuries-old streets, from Kate Waller Barrett Branch Library, the site of a pioneering civil rights sit-in in 1939, to the Alexandria Black History Museum, spanning a breadth of the city's and nation's Black history. Feel like you're in a potions class at Stabler-Leadbeater Apothecary Museum, or explore George Washington's Mount Vernon, just eight miles south of Old Town.

5. Explore the Arts Scene

Admire the ever-expanding collection of murals throughout Alexandria, then observe art in action at the 100-year-old former munitions plant turned arts anchor Torpedo Factory Art Center. Stop by Kyo Gallery and Principle Gallery, then pick up locally made creations at Fantastical Glass, Made in ALX and Shop Made in VA. See a performance at The Little Theatre of Alexandria, Alexandria Symphony Orchestra, the Birchmere and more.

Whether you're here for 48 hours or a full week, there's an Alexandria itinerary for you.

The Best of OUTDOOR DINING

Find the perfect al fresco eatery.

Street-Side People-Watching

Take in the sights from an outdoor table on the pedestrian zone of lower King Street. Enjoy white-tablecloth dining outside Landini Brothers or fresh seafood from Fish Market. Stop by Mia's Italian Kitchen for a cozy Italian experience, or stroll down a side street and head to Fontaine for quiche or a crêpe. On upper King Street, claim a sidewalk perch at Vaso's Mediterranean Bistro or enjoy Southern comfort food with a modern twist at Hen Quarter.

Laid-Back Spots to Sip

Grab a table on the casual patio of Augie's Mussel House for Belgian brews and mouthwatering mussels, plus warming heaters in the wintertime. Or keep the chill at bay around a firepit at Lena's Wood-Fired Pizza & Tap. On balmier days, head to Del Ray to enjoy the festive patio and chef-driven menu at Evening Star Café's Front Porch or to relax in the beer garden at Gustave Boulangerie & Brasserie. For a relaxed vibe with creative cocktails, head to King's Ransom, or soak up the lively atmosphere at Southside 815.

Rooftop Rendezvous

Head to happy hour with a skyline vista at Hank's Oyster Bar in Old Town North, or raise a glass on the rooftop of Alexandria Bier Garden. You'll thank your lucky stars for the great drinks and amazing views at Hotel Heron's Good Fortune rooftop bar in Old Town. Above the King Street pedestrian zone, Daniel O'Connell's Irish Restaurant & Pub's second-level patio is the perfect perch for pairing Irish fare with a Guinness.

Buzzing Courtyards

Take a few steps off King Street to Parisian-inspired Josephine and dine alongside a floral mural. Try Taverna Cretekou's tempting Greek plates in a garden draped in twinkle lights. Visit King & Rye at The Alexandrian Old Town Alexandria, Autograph Collection for stylish lounge areas and a seasonal cocktail garden. In Old Town North, unwind on the lush terrace at Hotel AKA Alexandria, where you can enjoy a sophisticated atmosphere and scenic views.

Nekisha Durrett

WATERFRONT PUBLIC ART

D.C.-based mixed media artist Nekisha Durrett brings history forward through modern visual language in artwork shown across the country. Her installation Break Water is on display in Waterfront Park from late March to November 2025. The sculpture draws inspiration from Alexandria's waterfront being a place where natural forces and human activity intersect, often with profound consequences.

The sculpture's centerpiece, crafted from charred wood, evokes the sidewheel of the steamboat River Queen, a vessel symbolizing Black ownership and opportunity from 1898 until its mysterious destruction by fire in 1911, shortly after its purchase by Black entrepreneur Lewis Jefferson. Encircled by black sandbags, the piece honors the resilience and strength of Black communities, referencing both protection and endurance during crises. Beneath the sculpture, a ground mural of tangled, taut ropes—called Life Lines—appears to tether the artwork to the park's architectural elements, anchoring it against a symbolic undercurrent.

"In Break Water, these black sandbags serve not only as mere barriers; they symbolize the ocean's breakwaters and connect to the American scholar Fred Moten's concept of the jazz "break" as a site of Black resistance and innovation—a moment of disruption and possibility within the relentless flow of time and history," says Durrett.

THE ALEXANDRIA Dining Experience

Turkish Coffee Lady

From a morning boost to an adults' night out, you'll find the right experience for you in the city's dynamic restaurant scene.

The breadth and diversity of Alexandria's culinary scene will delight you—and your palate. No matter the time of day, the company you're with or the vibe you're seeking, the number of options to choose from is sure to surprise you.

Coffee & Cafés

Whether you prefer a nitro cold brew or a cappuccino, you'll find a caffeinated pick-me-up at the many coffeehouses and cafés across Alexandria's neighborhoods. Head to one of two locations of Alexandria's original specialty roaster, Misha's Coffee, for coffee, cakes and small bites. The Greenery by TLC is a coffee shop with an eco-friendly bent, while you can taste brews from around the globe at the Turkish Coffee Lady, Bad Ass Coffee of Hawaii and Hypergoat Café, inspired by Nordic-style roasts. Need to get an assignment done? Teleworkers make themselves at home at Swings Coffee and St. Elmo's Coffee Pub.

Fontaine

Brunch Spots

Bacon, eggs and breakfast potatoes await at Old Town favorites Blackwall Hitch and Chadwicks, while a turn down a charming side street off King Street reveals Fontaine, a crêperie with outdoor seating that feels downright Parisian. Del Ray is another neighborhood that takes brunch seriously: you'll find mouthwatering midmorning menus at Cheesetique, Matt & Tony's and Del Ray Café. On King Street, Beeliner Diner goes all in with all-day brunch offerings.

Romantic Restaurants

Whether you're celebrating a big anniversary or a Friday date night, turn to these sophisticated spots for a special evening out. For outdoor dining, Jula's on the Potomac offers a sweeping front-row balcony view of the Potomac River. If a modern hotel bar is more your speed, Kiln at Hotel Heron in Old Town and a.lounge+bar in Old Town North's Hotel AKA Alexandria both offer sleek interiors, mid-Atlantic-inspired fare and top-notch craft cocktails. Or zero in on your beloved's favorite cuisine, whether that's in Old Town with pasta at Il Porto or Thompson Italian, Mediterranean fare at Elaine's, surf and turf at historic seafood destination The Wharf or playful cocktails and Cuban fare at The Loft at Lena's – Havana 151 in Del Ray.

Thompson Italian

Live Music

Alexandria is home to one of the D.C. area's most celebrated music venues, the Birchmere, where stars like Emmylou Harris and Ray Charles have taken the stage. Nationally known musicians still stop in at the Birchmere almost nightly, but that's far from your only option for dinner and a show. Pubs in Old Town like Murphy's Irish Pub, The Light Horse Restaurant and Daniel O'Connell's Irish Restaurant & Pub are well known for hosting live music, as are French-Creole eatery 219 Restaurant and waterfront spot Blackwall Hitch. Test out your own vocal skills with open-mic nights at the laid-back No. 9 Lounge at Evening Star Café. Looking for live jazz? Head to Makeda Ethiopian Restaurant or Laporta's Restaurant.

Makeda Ethiopian Restaurant

Sweet Treats

Old Town is scoop-shop central: just check out ice-cream parlors The Creamery, Pop's Old Fashioned Ice Cream and Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams, where you can sample flavors such as banana cream pudding or gooey butter cake. Prefer gelato? Casa Rosada Artisan Gelato and Dolci Gelati have got you covered, while Dairy Godmother Frozen Custard & Nostalgic Treats in Del Ray is well known for its Wisconsin-style frozen custard, fruit-filled sorbet and even all-natural "puppy pops" for your furry friends. For milkshakes and sundaes, The Crazy Mason Milkshake Bar's over-the-top creations are capped with cookies, brownies and even a slice of cheesecake. If you're not in a frozen-treat mood, Lavender Moon Cupcakery's rotating selection of from-scratch offerings are as pretty as they are tasty.

Casa Luna

Market Square

Enjoy a Drink

The city's beer scene is hopping. Spots such as the colorful Aslin Beer Company, with its dog-friendly patio, and Port City Brewing Company, the longest-operating brewery in the D.C. metro area, are part of a must-try lineup that also includes saison-centric Mieza Blendery and Atlas Brew Works. Meanwhile, Lost Boy Cider brews up more than a dozen ciders on draft in their taproom, and Orkney Springs Distillery's tasting room serves samples of spirits with fresh, local flavors. For something shaken (or stirred), settle in to the bar at cozy craft cocktail spots like The Study, The Peoples Drug, Casa Luna, Captain Gregory's and Alice Cocktail Bar. The MacMillan Spirit House even offers Cocktail Academy classes so you can perfect your technique.

THE PERFECT HOME BASE FOR A D.C. VACATION

Enjoy easy access to monuments, nature and entertainment.

Located just minutes from Washington, D.C., on the Potomac River waterfront, Alexandria is the perfect home base for a visit to the nation's capital or as a launch point to explore more of Northern Virginia. Visitors love staying in Alexandria because of its accessibility via Metrorail, water taxi, train, bike, walking and more. As one of Condé Nast Traveler's top 5 "Best Small Cities in the U.S." for seven consecutive years, Alexandria is the ideal starting point for your next vacation in the D.C. region.

Get out on the water with City Cruises' Potomac water taxi or monuments sightseeing tour, or take the Metrorail to the National Mall. Discover 16 free Smithsonian museums and the National Zoo, plus explore the iconic monuments and memorials.

In Northern Virginia, cruise along Skyline Drive in Shenandoah National Park, less than two hours from Alexandria, or explore nature at Great Falls Park, an 800-acre national park just 35 minutes from Old Town. Check out the National Museum of the United States Army in Fairfax County, or hop on board with USA Guided Tours and pay your respects to our nation's bravest at Arlington National Cemetery.

Across the river, spend the evening at MGM National Harbor after playing a round of golf at Topgolf National Harbor.

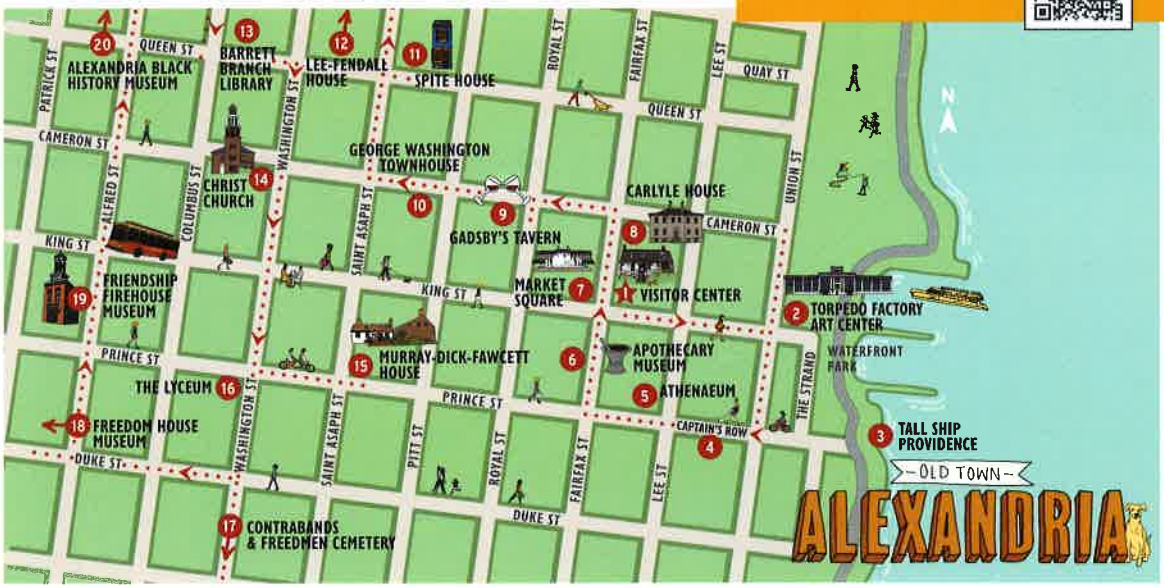
SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Discover Alexandria while you stroll historic streets.

Explore Alexandria's curated Great Walks



1 ALEXANDRIA VISITOR CENTER 221 KING STREET
Re-creation of the circa-1724 home of Scottish merchant and city Co-founder William Ramsay.

2 TORPEDO FACTORY ART CENTER 105 N. UNION ST.
A torpedo factory during WWII, now home to three levels of active artist studios, seven galleries and the Alexandria Archaeology Museum.

3 TALL SHIP PROVIDENCE 1A PRINCE ST.
A reproduction of the first ship commissioned by the Continental Congress offers immersive dockside tours and seasonal sails at the floating Senator John Warner Maritime Heritage Center.

4 CAPTAIN'S ROW 100 BLOCK OF PRINCE ST.
Iconic cobblestone block of private residences named after a successful overseas trader.

5 THE ATHENAEUM 201 PRINCE ST.
Built in 1851 and currently an art gallery, this salmon-pink Greek Revival building was once a bank.

6 STABLER-LEADBEATER APOTHECARY MUSEUM 105-107 S. FAIRFAX ST.
Tour this 18th-century family-run pharmacy to see still-intact herbal botanicals and ingredients that will transport you to Hogwarts.

7 MARKET SQUARE 300 KING STREET
Site of Alexandria's City Hall, built in 1871, and the nation's oldest continually operating farmers market in one location, open Saturdays year-round.

8 CARLYLE HOUSE 121 N. FAIRFAX ST.
This Georgian Palladian manor house was built in 1753 by wealthy Scottish merchant and city cofounder John Carlyle.

9 GADSBY'S TAVERN 134 N. ROYAL ST.
This two-building complex includes the 1785 City Tavern, whose notable patrons included George Washington and Thomas Jefferson, and the 1792 Federal-style City Hotel.

10 GEORGE WASHINGTON TOWNHOUSE 508 CAMERON ST. (PRIVATE)
Re-creation of a townhouse built by Washington in 1769 to provide quarters when he couldn't return to Mount Vernon.

11 SPITE HOUSE 523 QUEEN ST. (PRIVATE)
The skinniest historic house in America, built in 1830 to keep loiterers out of the adjacent alley, is just seven feet wide.

12 LEE-FENDALL HOUSE 614 ORONOCO ST.
Tour this 18th-century home to learn about life in the house from 1810 to 1950.

13 BARRETT BRANCH LIBRARY 717 QUEEN ST.
Site of one of America's earliest recorded sit-ins in 1939, seeking to desegregate Alexandria's library.

14 CHRIST CHURCH 118 N. WASHINGTON ST.
Constructed in 1775. George Washington played a part in building this rectangular Georgian church in 1773 and was an original pew-holder (#60).

15 MURRAY-DICK-FAWCETT HOUSE 517 PRINCE ST.
Built in 1775, this timber-frame and brick dwelling was around during the American Revolution.

16 THE LYCEUM 201 S. WASHINGTON ST.
Built in 1839 and once a Civil War hospital, the building now hosts lectures and concerts and is home to the Alexandria History Museum.

17 CONTRABANDS & FREEDMEN CEMETERY 1001 S. WASHINGTON ST.
Between 1864 and 1869, 1,800 African Americans who fled to Union-occupied Alexandria to escape bondage were buried here.

18 FREEDOM HOUSE MUSEUM 1315 DUKE ST.
National Historic Landmark with three exhibitions showcasing the Black experience in America and honoring the enslaved and free Black people who lived in—and were trafficked through—Alexandria.

19 FRIENDSHIP FIREHOUSE MUSEUM 107 S ALFRED ST.
Established in 1774, the Friendship Fire Company was the city's first volunteer fire company. The firehouse was built in 1855.

20 ALEXANDRIA BLACK HISTORY MUSEUM 902 WYTHE ST.
Originally the segregated library for Alexandria's African American residents, the museum documents the contributions and experiences of Black Americans.
